Success Story

“Helping my candidate Ivonne navigate a career shift was a true pleasure. From getting her setup with a Contract Role, to coaching her through the training and position, to now her receiving a fulltime offer that is $15K over what she was previously making, makes all the work worth it. It just goes to show, when you have an advocate/recruiter on your side, and you are a candidate who puts in the work, a career shift is possible.”
